HOPO SHINDIG

October 2, 2009 at 4pm is the HoPo ribbon cutting with Mayor Reed. It is also going to be the HoPo Shindig and Midtown Passport Launch Party! Next door to the HoPo is Harrisburg Midtown Arts Center. We will have refreshments, cash bar and music by Chris Novak and Kevin Neidig. Along with that we will be having demos going on in the HoPo. This is your chance to meet your fellow consignors and the HoPo Community. Wear your Friday best and come out and see us at the HoPo. There is free parking after 5 on the streets. Invitations will be sent via twitter, facebook and email. Schedule the babysitter now!!

HoPo is going POSTal for the Holidays!

Take a flyer, put your name and email on the back and POST it on a posting board or community board in the area. When we spot your posting you could win 5 dollars towards your purchases in our shop! You will be emailed as the lucky winner and you can then stop in to pick up your winning gift certificate! Winners will be listed on our website w/ their photo! We will have scouts looking for these postings! You can print the posting off our website or by copying the pic above and printing it. First winner will be announced on October 2nd at the Shindig! Want to be a scout? Email Jessica at Jessica@thehodgepodgery.com – NO CHEATING

Gallery Walk Success!

We had over 300 people in our shop on September 13, 2009. It was a great day to show the Burg what we have to offer. It was also our best sales day yet!

We had a spread of Feta Bruschetta, Fried Oreos and Vodka Guava Punch. Thank you John Bowermaster for your Oreo frying skills!

It is great to see how the consignor community is blossoming as well as how Harrisburg is reacting to our concept.

Thank you all for your support!

HoPo Info Fo Yo

*We have a Flickr account!

*Have you read the September edition of Mode magazine? We are on page 14.

Our shop hours are:
Tuesday thru Friday 11-7
Saturday 10-5
We will be open longer when there is a workshop in progress.

*If you have not added us as a friend on Facebook, please do. There are impromptu competitions and challenges for free prizes. We like to keep things spicy! When is the last time you played "I Spy?" You can find us listed as "Hodge Podgery".

Tara Trovitch

My brand is Cottage Funk and I am a Grad Student in American Studies at PSU. I am a Scrapbooker with ten years experience (I have taught classes) and I love to plan trips based on what new scrap products I want to buy :) I also do general crafting but wish I could learn to knit and sew. I collect Vintage Aprons, vintage cookbooks and Girl Scout Stuff. I am a stay at home puppy mommy to 4 dogs (2 set of brothers 2 Labs and 2 Callahula Leapords). I love love love to go on road trips and travel but I am a dork and the trips have to include museums and historical sites. Also addicted to yard sales, thrift stores and free-cycle.

Tara will also be conducting our scrapbooking classes. See our website and schedule for more details. The classes will be posted shortly.

Jean Van Brederode

As a retired teacher of 34 years, I am happily doing all the art I had no time to do during my career. My favorite materials include: Curiously unique found objects, enamels, insects, copper, brass, plaster, resin, fabric, FauxBone, beads, buttons, solder, paper, wire, rubber toys. My favorite artists are D J Pettitt, Stephanie Lee, Susan Lenart-Kazmer, Jane Wynn, Nina Bagley, Deryn Mentock, & Linda & Opie Obrien. While I still teach online 5 hours every weekday during the school year (in my pajamas without starting my car!), I am able to happily pursue forms of art that have appealed to me for many years. Some of my other interests include quilting, purse-making, mixed & altered media, traveling to visit my three sons & grandchildren (who are scattered all over the world), community & library volunteer work, & of course, making art!

You can take Jean's Dumpster Dive Initial Charm class at the HoPo. See the website for dates and time. Her brand is Charmed I'm Sure.
